Venue: Seminar Hall, SSDCH

No. of Participants:

Objective of the Event/Programme: To promote cultural awareness, preserve traditional values, and provide students with an opportunity to understand and experience the rich heritage of Telangana. The event aimed to foster unity, encourage student participation in cultural activities, and instil a sense of pride in regional traditions, while creating a vibrant and inclusive atmosphere on campus.

About the programme with photographs:

The Bonalu celebrations at Siva Sivani Degree College were conducted with great enthusiasm, reflecting the cultural richness of Telangana. The event began with a warm welcome note by Shubham, a student, which set a joyful and engaging tone for the occasion. The principal addressed the gathering, explaining the origin of the Bonalu festival and emphasizing its significance in Telangana's culture and heritage. The principal also highlighted the role of Bonalu in promoting unity, cultural exchange, and appreciation among students. The school students of Siva Sivani Public School extended their support with the energetic performance of their Band of Boys, who set the perfect tone for the Bonalu celebrations and added vibrancy to the event.

Bonalu, dedicated to Goddess Mahankali, is celebrated with deep devotion to seek blessings for prosperity and protection. The festival not only represents the spiritual essence of Telangana but also showcases its vibrant cultural heritage, fostering unity and camaraderie among people. Continuing this tradition, the college celebrated the occasion with colourful decorations, rituals, and enthusiastic student participation.

The highlight of the day was the cultural performances by students, which included vibrant dance routines, soulful music, and heartfelt skits portraying the rich cultural diversity of India. Adding to the festive charm, students dressed in their traditional attire enhancing the celebratory spirit. The event served as a meaningful platform for students to connect with their cultural roots, appreciate diversity, and experience the pride of preserving traditional values.

On account of the Bonalu celebrations, the Cultural Committee organized Bonam Making and Selfie Competitions. Students participated with great enthusiasm, showcasing their creativity in beautifully decorated bonams and capturing memorable moments that reflected the festive spirit. The celebrations concluded with students offering the bonams to the Goddess, seeking her blessings for prosperity and protection. Here are the few glimpses of the event:

Learning Outcomes:

1. The event fostered respect and appreciation for traditional practices, rituals, and values.
2. Activities like Bonam making and the selfie competition provided a platform for students to showcase their artistic and innovative skills.
3. Performing on stage and participating in competitions helped students develop self-confidence and public presentation skills.
