1. Event Overview

The Literary Club of Siva Sivani Degree College (SSDCH) conducted a vibrant and culturally enriching celebration of International Mother Language Day on 21st February 2026. The purpose of the event was to emphasize the significance of preserving mother tongues, promoting linguistic diversity, and reinforcing cultural identity among students. Approximately 60 students and faculty members participated enthusiastically, contributing to a lively and interactive environment.

2. About The Program

Welcome Note by Sandeep

The event commenced with a brief introduction to the history and significance of International Mother Language Day, by student Meghana followed by:

- The Origin of Telugu Language by Satluri Akil threw light on the language dating back in history and its development.
- Student Pranav spoke about the importance of his mother tongue.
- Short Poems in Native languages were recited by Adivya in Bhojpuri, Aishwarya recited a short poem in Telugu about Mother, Pallavi recited few idioms in Marathi. Sravanthi quoted few famous Telugu proverbs with its symbolic meaning in English Shubham delivered a speech in Marathi and the important role of the culture and food of Maharashtra followed by a ghazal in Urdu by Jagan.
- Wise Sayings by Keertana in Telugu and Dwish spoke a few lines in Hindi.
- Faculty Members Ms. Latha Salomi then took over to give some insights about Telugu Language with a short story of inspiration.
- Faculty -Mrs Smitha Shine with her enthusiastic spirit made the audience hum to the rhythm of a trendy Malayalam song explaining its meaning in English.
- Short presentations on linguistic heritage

Recitations, songs, and dialogues in various mother tongues followed by an engaging interactive session where students shared unique words and phrases from their native languages

These sessions highlighted the linguistic richness of India and honoured the theme of Unity in Diversity.

3. Key Highlights

- Students actively participated through spontaneous contributions, adding energy and diversity to the program.
- Languages such as Telugu, Hindi, Urdu, Tamil, Malayalam, Mythili, Bengali, and Marathi were represented, promoting inclusivity.
- The presentation and video clips were successfully projected, enhancing the learning experience.

4. Feedback

- Participants appreciated the interactive format, cultural relevance, and opportunity to showcase their linguistic roots.

Overall, the program successfully fostered linguistic pride and strengthened cultural understanding on campus.

5. Conclusion

The celebration of International Mother Language Day at SSDCH was a meaningful and engaging event that aligned with the Literary Club's mission to promote language appreciation. The excellent coordination by faculty mentors and enthusiastic participation by students contributed to its success.
